1. This is a response by Save Symondshyde to the Arcadis Letter Report on the Wardell Armstrong Technical Paper on Chalk Dissolution Hazard at the Symondshyde proposed allocation site. An email from the Programme Officer on 6th October invited comments on various new documents, including EX154 and, by extension, EX92B.
2. Comments by Professor John Burland of Imperial College, London on behalf of Save Symondshyde are in the attached Appendix.
3. If necessary, Professor Burland is prepared to attend the appropriate Examination hearing to debate the issues raised in these and previous statements that we have submitted on this matter.
